MORGAN COUNTY TO ELECT DEMOCRATIC NOMINEES TUESDAY BY USUAL MAJORITY

ALL PREPARATIONS MADE FOR HOLDING ELECTION TO FILL VARIOUS OFFICES.

AMENDMENT FIGHT INTERESTS

EDUCATIONAL AMENDMENT MAY BE DEFEATED UNLESS CITIES VOTE STRONG.

Preparations had been completed this afternoon for the county, district, state and national elections in Morgan county tomorrow. The ballot boxes were sent out by Sheriff Forman to the country precincts Saturday and those for use in the city will be delivered this afternoon and early in the morning.

According to indications today, the cities of Albany and Decatur are going to poll a big vote, chiefly because a great deal of interest has been aroused in the six amendments to the constitution of the state, the educational amendment being the chief storm center.

It was stated today that the passage of these amendments depend a good deal in Morgan county on the vote polled for them in Albany and Decatur, the city vote being usually heavily progressive.

As for the candidates, Morgan county is going to give the democratic nominees from president on down to constable a rousing, old-fashioned democratic majority. The indications are that President Wilson will poll an unusually heavy democratic vote, notwithstanding the one-sided presidential race in Alabama. The other democratic nominees in the district, state and county will get an overwhelming majority.

No Scratching is Likely. Practically no scratching of the democratic ticket is expected in this county, as party workers are alert and will keep the democrats who scratch the ticket out of future primaries. All persons known to be democrats are permitted in these primaries and one little scratch against a democratic nominee may cast the voter into outer darkness.

HUGHES TO VOTE BEFORE BREAKFAST: MAY PRACTICE LAW AFTER ELECTION

NOMINEE HAS NOTHING TO SAY TODAY OR TOMORROW

SPENDS TIME QUIETLY

IS TRYING TO CATCH UP WITH SLEEP LOST DURING THE CAMPAIGN.

(BY R. B. SMITH.)
(International News Service.)

New York, Nov. 6.—Chas. Evans Hughes' father taught him the best way to vote is to vote before breakfast.

The republican nominee is a stickler for early teachings, so long before breakfast Mr. Hughes will be on his way to the polls tomorrow morning. Mr. Hughes will vote in a laundry in the rear of the Astor Hotel, his legal residence. He has voted at the same place for many years. He will go to the voting booth unaccompanied except by his body guard.

Undisturbed by straw votes and rival political predictions, the republican nominee is staying close to his hotel today devoting his time largely to catching up on some of the sleep he lost while campaigning. He had no plans for today except to go motoring and perhaps hold several informal conferences with his campaign managers.

Physically, Mr. Hughes is thinner than when nominated in June. Nothing but silence came from Mr. Hughes today. He had nothing to say yesterday; he had nothing to say today and he will have nothing to say tomorrow. This was the word coming from his headquarters.

The nominee will receive the returns with the immediate members of his family at the Astor Hotel. If elected, Mr. Hughes expects to spend the time resting before inauguration, probably somewhere in the South. If defeated, he probably will go back to the practice of law in New York City.

WOODROW WILSON

FROM PHOTO COPYRIGHT HARRIS & EWING

"He Has Kept Us Out of War!"

(AN EDITORIAL.)

This is the picture of a man whose place in American history is as firmly niched as that of George Washington, Thomas Jefferson or Abraham Lincoln.

Had Woodrow Wilson lived in the time of Gen. Washington he might have led the American people in their revolt against a tyrannical mother nation.

Had Woodrow Wilson been present at the birth of the new nation his wisdom and foresight might have qualified him for writing the declaration of independence or the organic law of the land.

Had Woodrow Wilson lived in the sixties his courage and vision might have made him the Lincoln to hold the union together and sweep forever a disgraceful social system from the continent.

But Woodrow Wilson came in the twentieth century at a time when the reactionary elements of the nation had held the reins of government so long that a Pandora's box of political troubles had been opened. How he revolutionized the financial system of the nation, revived the patriotism of the people, yet safeguarded them from dangers from alien foes and worked wonders in the method of government, is writ already in letters of fire on the pages of American history.

The eyes of the democrats of the world—democracy in its broadest sense—are upon the United States tomorrow. The world awaits the verdict of the electorate upon the first American president in fifty years who has been truly representative of the wishes and desires of the people.

JUST BEFORE THE BATTLE.

(International News Service.)

President Wilson: "The fight is won, I fully believe; though I take this means of urging you to renewed exertions and vigilance to see that belated efforts to confuse the public judgment do not succeed." Chas. Evans Hughes: "Mr. Hughes declined to make a formal statement, but told callers he felt certain the people had made up their minds to elect him and that anything he might say or do would be superfluous."

(BY STUART GODWIN.)

(International News Service.)

Shadow Lawn, Nov. 6.—Supremely confident that tomorrow's election will vindicate his policies, President Wilson rested today on the eve of the balloting. A basketful of telegrams poured in this morning from leaders in doubtful states. These assured the president that the tide continues strongly Wilsonward.

The most confident note is struck in the messages from Ohio. The democrats there not only promised the president the state, but pledged it by a substantial plurality. A flood of messages from Indiana brought predictions of a Wilson victory. There were other telegrams from Illinois, Minnesota, Michigan and New York.

The president will leave early tomorrow morning for Princeton to cast his vote. He will return to Shadow Lawn and receive the returns tomorrow night in his study. Only members of the family will be with him.

So confident were some of the democrats who wired the president that they attached words of congratulation on his victory to their assurances. Attaches of the White House are already preparing for the president's return to the White House after the election.

So far as the local Methodist churches are concerned, the North Alabama conference made a clean sweep.

The new assignments for Albany and Decatur are:

Central Methodist—Rev. J. C. Persinger.

First Methodist—Rev. H. M. Stevenson.

Ninth Street Methodist—Rev. L. W. Young.

Presiding elder Decatur district—Rev. W. E. Morris.

Rev. William Neill, pastor of the Austinville church for the past year was returned.

Rev. Ira F. Hanks, presiding elder of the Decatur district for the past four years, was sent to the First church at Bessemer.

The new presiding elder, Rev. W. E. Morris, has been previously stationed at the Woodlawn Methodist church.

WILSON WILL SWEEP NATION IS BELIEF OF LOCAL DEMOCRATS

Local democrats are strong in their belief that the country will go for Wilson by a big majority and with it will go Ohio, West Virginia, Kentucky, Missouri, Indiana and other important states of the middle west. In the east they expect President Wilson to carry New York and New Jersey, as the result in the former state is only a question of the democratic organization's ability to get out the vote in New York City.

The claims of North Alabama democrats as to the middle west are founded on the results of many straw vote ballots and betting odds. In Ohio, for instance, they refer to the fact that the president has been leading by a constantly widening margin in the straw vote of the Cincinnati Enquirer for the past three weeks, although Hughes started out two months ago a two to one favorite. Wilson now has 14,169 straw votes, while Hughes has 11,486. On this basis the state would give Wilson at least 100,000 majority, as the normal vote in Ohio is 800,000. The election odds of Wilson carrying Ohio are 5 to 4 and 6 to 4, with few takers in the republican ranks.

Indiana is Very Close.

In Indiana the situation is admittedly close, say the local democrats. Out of some six or seven thousand straw votes taken in the Hoosier state Hughes is leading by several hundred. Democratic hopes of carrying the state are based on the strong local democratic organization which is headed by such men as Tom Taggart, John W. Kern, Tom Marshall and others.

In West Virginia, say these same democrats, it's all for Wilson and ditto Kentucky and Tennessee. These states are expected to give the president immense majorities. Labor in West Virginia is solid for Wilson, the coal mining regions being strongly democratic this year.

Pooh, Pooh, For the Bets.

Local democrats are also inclined to scoff at Wall street's sudden change in the betting odds of yesterday, private information from New York City being that the betting is still even money, although large bets have been placed for effect at as high as 10 to 6 on Hughes. It is pointed out that only yesterday, according to reliable press dispatches, one large trader in Wall street was offering $50,000 at 7 to 10 on Wilson and could find no takers. Large republican operators in conjunction with the G. O. P. headquarters are accused of having "rigged" the betting for sentimental effect. Seventy-five hundred dollars was telegraphed yesterday from New York to Seattle to be covered by a retired Seattle business man at even money on Wilson.

A Vote For the Amendment is a Vote For the School Children of Alabama

Morgan countians and especially the voters of Albany and Decatur should go to the polls Tuesday and vote for the educational amendment.

Here are seven salient facts about this amendment:

1. The adoption of this amendment does not alter any provision of the present constitution; it only adds a new article allowing additional educational privileges.
2. The adoption of the amendment levies no tax.
3. Even after the adoption of this amendment, no county can levy a school tax unless a majority of those voting at an election called for that purpose favor it.
4. Under this amendment a county can levy any amount up to three mills, but a district cannot levy any tax at all unless the county is levying as much as three mills.
5. All funds raised under this amendment will remain in the county and be expended by the county board of education for the schools of the county or district raising such funds.
6. No school funds which any county now gets would be affected by this amendment.
7. No official can be paid one cent for assessing, collecting or disbursing any funds raised under the authority of this amendment.

EVERYBODY WILL WATCH DAILY BULLETIN BOARD TUESDAY NIGHT

According to indications today, nearly everybody in North Alabama who is interested in elections in even the remotest degree will watch the Daily bulletin board tomorrow night, when the returns are flashed on the screen in front of the Daily office. This will be the biggest feat of its kind ever attempted in Alabama outside the larger cities. The bulletins will come hot off the leased wire of the International News Service, which will be connected direct with the Daily office by means of a loop. An expert operator from the local offices of the American Telephone & Telegraph Company will man the Morse key, and the bulletins will be served to the stereopticon as fast as they come in. Tom Ratliffe, the Masonic theatre expert, will stand back of the projection, and has planned to erect a screen directly across the street near the Seamons building, so that it can be viewed by persons far up on the high ground above, as well as by those who will pack the alley back of the Daily office. Already reservations have been made for all windows that carry a view of the screen.

The Daily's unexampled bulletin service is made possible through the co-operation of the International News Service and Manager Cagle, of the local playhouses, who will furnish the moving picture machine and the operator.

TWO IMPORTANT AMENDMENTS.

Of the six proposed amendments to the constitution of Alabama that will be presented to the voters tomorrow for adoption or rejection there are two of such supreme importance that the Daily asks for their ratification by an overwhelming vote. One of these amendments gives to counties and school districts the right to levy a 3-mill tax for school purposes, and the other grants savings account depositors in state banks the same protection afforded checking depositors. These two amendments have been placed before the electorate at such length and with such clearness during the campaign of the past few weeks, that the Daily does not feel the need of calling further attention to their merits. The value of public schools—real public schools—is too apparent to need comment. The justice of protecting the small depositor is so evident that no one should oppose it.

It is to remind the ballot wielder of the great opportunity that tomorrow's election gives them: that the Daily again calls the attention of the voters of North Alabama and especially of Albany, Decatur and Morgan county to the duty that confronts them. Vote for these two amendments.

TONIGHT'S MASS MEETING.

Attend the mass meeting tonight in the council chamber of the Albany city hall. It is for the purpose of discussing the importance of team work. Co-operation builds cities. The proposed Board of Commerce, if it obtains the sympathy and support to which it is entitled, will prove a powerful agency in making Albany what every patriotic citizen desires in his home town.

More business, more people, better farming, more factories mean a busier and a better balanced community. The Board of Commerce will labor to this end—how effectively depends upon the attitude each citizen assumes toward the organization. Support of this movement means success and progress; neglect and indifference will bring about stagnation and failure. Do your part. Attend the mass meeting.

THE NEW YORK HERALD CONDEMNES WILSON'S ELECTION.

The New York Herald, whose straw vote has aroused much interest throughout the country, Sunday morning conceded the election of Wilson. The Herald has supported Hughes. The Herald's forecast of yesterday opens and closes with a suggestion of a Wilson landslide, and throughout its solid page of election forecasts runs the suggestion of a groundswell.

Said the Herald:
"From the straw vote it might be inferred that with a little added impetus the drift which has been steadily moving in the president's direction might grow into what political writers term a 'landslide.'"

As the Daily pointed out last week the drift to Wilson was not stopped a week ago as the republicans claimed. It has grown into a great tidal wave which will sweep the democratic president back into office by a monster majority in the electoral college. "He kept us out of war," prosperity and preparedness have been the winning issues.

If you know nothing about the merits of the educational amendment can't you take the word of Senator Oscar Underwood, Capt. R. P. Hobson, Chairman C. B. Forman of the progressive party, Dr. W. B. Crumpton, Senator Bankhead, Ray Rushton, Emmet O'Neal, Gov. Henderson, A. H. Carmichael, Wm. D. Jelks, N. D. Denison and thousands of other prominent men of Alabama and vote for it? These men have endorsed the amendment.

EVEN the jaded appetite revives before N. B. C. Graham Crackers. Irresistibly appetizing, with a wonderful nut-like flavor, sustaining and light are these crisp biscuit of best graham flour baked to a tempting goodness.

NATIONAL BISCUIT COMPANY

If the people of New York City vote in the same splendid manner as they turned out to do honor to President Wilson when he was there last week, we have no doubt of his re-election. The city only has a republican majority of something like 70,000 up-state to overcome, and Tammany ought to roll up at least 100,000 majority. If it does, Wilson is elected and New York's big electoral vote will make it look like a landslide.

Vote for the Selma amendment. It merely gives to Selma the right to spend its own money in the way it sees fit. Every voter would demand the same right were his own coin concerned.

The Chicago Daily News complains that "a stampeded congress carried out Wilson's orders in jig time." And just for that reason the democratic congress is going to be re-elected.

To the Hughes boosters: What ten states of the forty-eight states of the union would you pick if you were betting ten to one that the republican nominee would carry the entire lot?

The New York Herald's straw vote indicates the election of Wilson without the electoral vote of New York. How insulting this must seem to New York state and to Mr. Hughes.

The ammonia trust is opposing Muscle Shoals. You can make your own jest about the power of ammonia.

Don't scratch the democratic ticket Tuesday or you may be kept out of future democratic primaries.

The fellows that heckled the prohibition candidate for president certainly had little to do.

MORGAN COUNTY TO ELECT DEMOCRAT

The election of Edward B. Almon as congressman; L. P. Troup as probate judge; Frank J. Troup as tax assessor; C. C. Robertson as tax collector; James L. Draper as circuit court clerk; Robert C. Brickell and O. Kyle as circuit judges; Frank J. Davis as inferior judge of Decatur; F. M. Hamilton as inferior judge of Albany, and all other democratic nominees by the usual large majorities is expected.

In the cities of Albany and Decatur the polls will open at 8 o'clock and close at 5 p. m.

Amendments Arouse Interest.

The fight for the six amendments to the state constitution has aroused much interest in this part of the state and the opponents of the amendments claim they will safely beat all the amendments.

* These amendments are briefly stated as follows:

No. 1—Authorizing counties to levy and collect a special school tax.

No. 2—Regulating compensation of officials of Montgomery county.

No. 3—To protect savings depositors in state banks.

No. 4—To allow Selma to determine the amount of taxes the city shall levy.

No. 5—Providing for meetings of the state legislature every two years instead of each four years.

No. 6—To allow certain counties to levy taxes, providing the voters desire it.

Socialists Claim Gains.

Another interesting feature of the election tomorrow is the claim of the socialists of Morgan county that they will make inroads into the democratic and republican votes. The socialists have candidates for county offices, as well as for congress and presidential electors.

Paul Harris Jr. is Speaker at Y. M. C. A.

Inspiring services were held at the Y. M. C. A. yesterday afternoon, when Paul Harris, Jr., of the Boys' Work Department of the Y. M. C. A. of Nashville, Tenn., addressed the meeting for men on the question "Can God Be Killed?"

Mr. Harris' address and his engaging personality were sources of strength to his hearers. He came to the Twin Cities at the instance of Dr. A. S. Klein, physical director of the Y. M. C. A. at Nashville. Dr. Keim was to have been present, but was unavoidably detained.

PERSHING TO GO AFTER VILLISTAS WHO KILLED U. S. CITIZENS, REPORT

UNOFFICIALLY STATED THAT MURDER OF AMERICANS AT PARRAL TO BE AVENGED.

DEATH LIST NOW TWELVE

TRAINS NOW IN READINESS FOR MOVEMENT OF CHIHUAHUA CITY GARRISON.

(International News Service.)

El Paso, Nov. 6.—American citizens have been killed by Villistas in their raids on towns south of Chihuahua, according to information received by federal agents here today.

These include nine Americans killed at Parral, Dr. C. M. Fisher stabbed to death at Santa Rosalia, and Harry Bechelder and Dr. Frank Well, killed at Guerrero.

Hope for the safety of the nine Americans known to have been in Parral faded today when it was learned that they attempted to flee from the town in a party by themselves instead of joining the Carranza forces going to Escalon.

It is reported here that Gen. Pershing is preparing to move eastward and take a hand against the Villistas, if the reports of the killing of the Americans is confirmed. At Fort Bliss it was said there was no information to be given out. It was intimated, however, that such co-operation has been asked by the de facto government.

Only a handful of Americans remain in Chihuahua City, according to refugees arriving here. Those who reached the border include the families of several of Gen. Trevino's officers. Preparations to evacuate Chihuahua are being made rapidly, the refugees said. Engines are kept ready to move on short notice with trains long since prepared for Trevino and his troops.

FIRST OFFICIAL REPORT OF MASSACRE RECEIVED.

(International News Service.)
Washington, Nov. 6.—The first official report dealing with unofficial statements that Villistas killed 12 Americans south of Chihuahua was received by the state department today.

Collector of Customs Park at El Paso forwarded unconfirmed reports that Dr. C. H. Fisher was stabbed to death at Santa Rosalia. Nothing has been heard here from the nine Americans reported killed at Parral.

McCORMICK REITERATES HIS ELECTION PREDICTION

(International News Service.)
New York, Nov. 6.—The final word from Vance McCormick today was a reiteration of his prophecy that President Wilson will have at least 364 electoral votes, or 98 more than enough to win. "Everything looks rosy," said the commander-in-chief of the Wilson forces.

ELECTION ODDS IN GOTHAM FAVOR HUGHES.

(International News Service.)
New York, Nov. 6.—Election bets were made today in Wall street district at odds of 10 to 8 with Hughes the favorite. There were numerous wagers with various states at various odds. One commissioner said that bets had been placed at 2 to 1 that Hughes would carry New York, 10 to 9 that Hughes would carry New Jersey and 10 to 7 that Wilson will carry Ohio.

INDIANA IS DOUBTFUL.

TAGGART PREDICTS 40,000.
(International News Service.)
Indianapolis, Nov. 6.—Fully believing that "as Indiana goes so goes the nation," the working forces of the republican and democratic parties redoubled their efforts today, the last of the hardest fought campaign in years.

All leaders voiced confidence, but most of them hesitated to predict pluralities. Indiana will be classed a doubtful state by non-partisan prognosticators until the vote is counted. Harry S. New, for the republicans, claims the state by 40,000. Tom Taggart predicts a democratic victory by 40,000.

A NEW NAME—A NEW TOWN

Meeting of Citizens in the City Hall at 8 o'clock Tonight

Men of Albany, women of Albany, come to this meeting. Learn the importance of this movement, and the seriousness of the business men of your town who have enlisted in this effort to build a city here.

You can't be a one-cylinder citizen and keep it a secret. Advertise yourself as belonging to the high-power class. You can do this by joining the Board of Commerce.

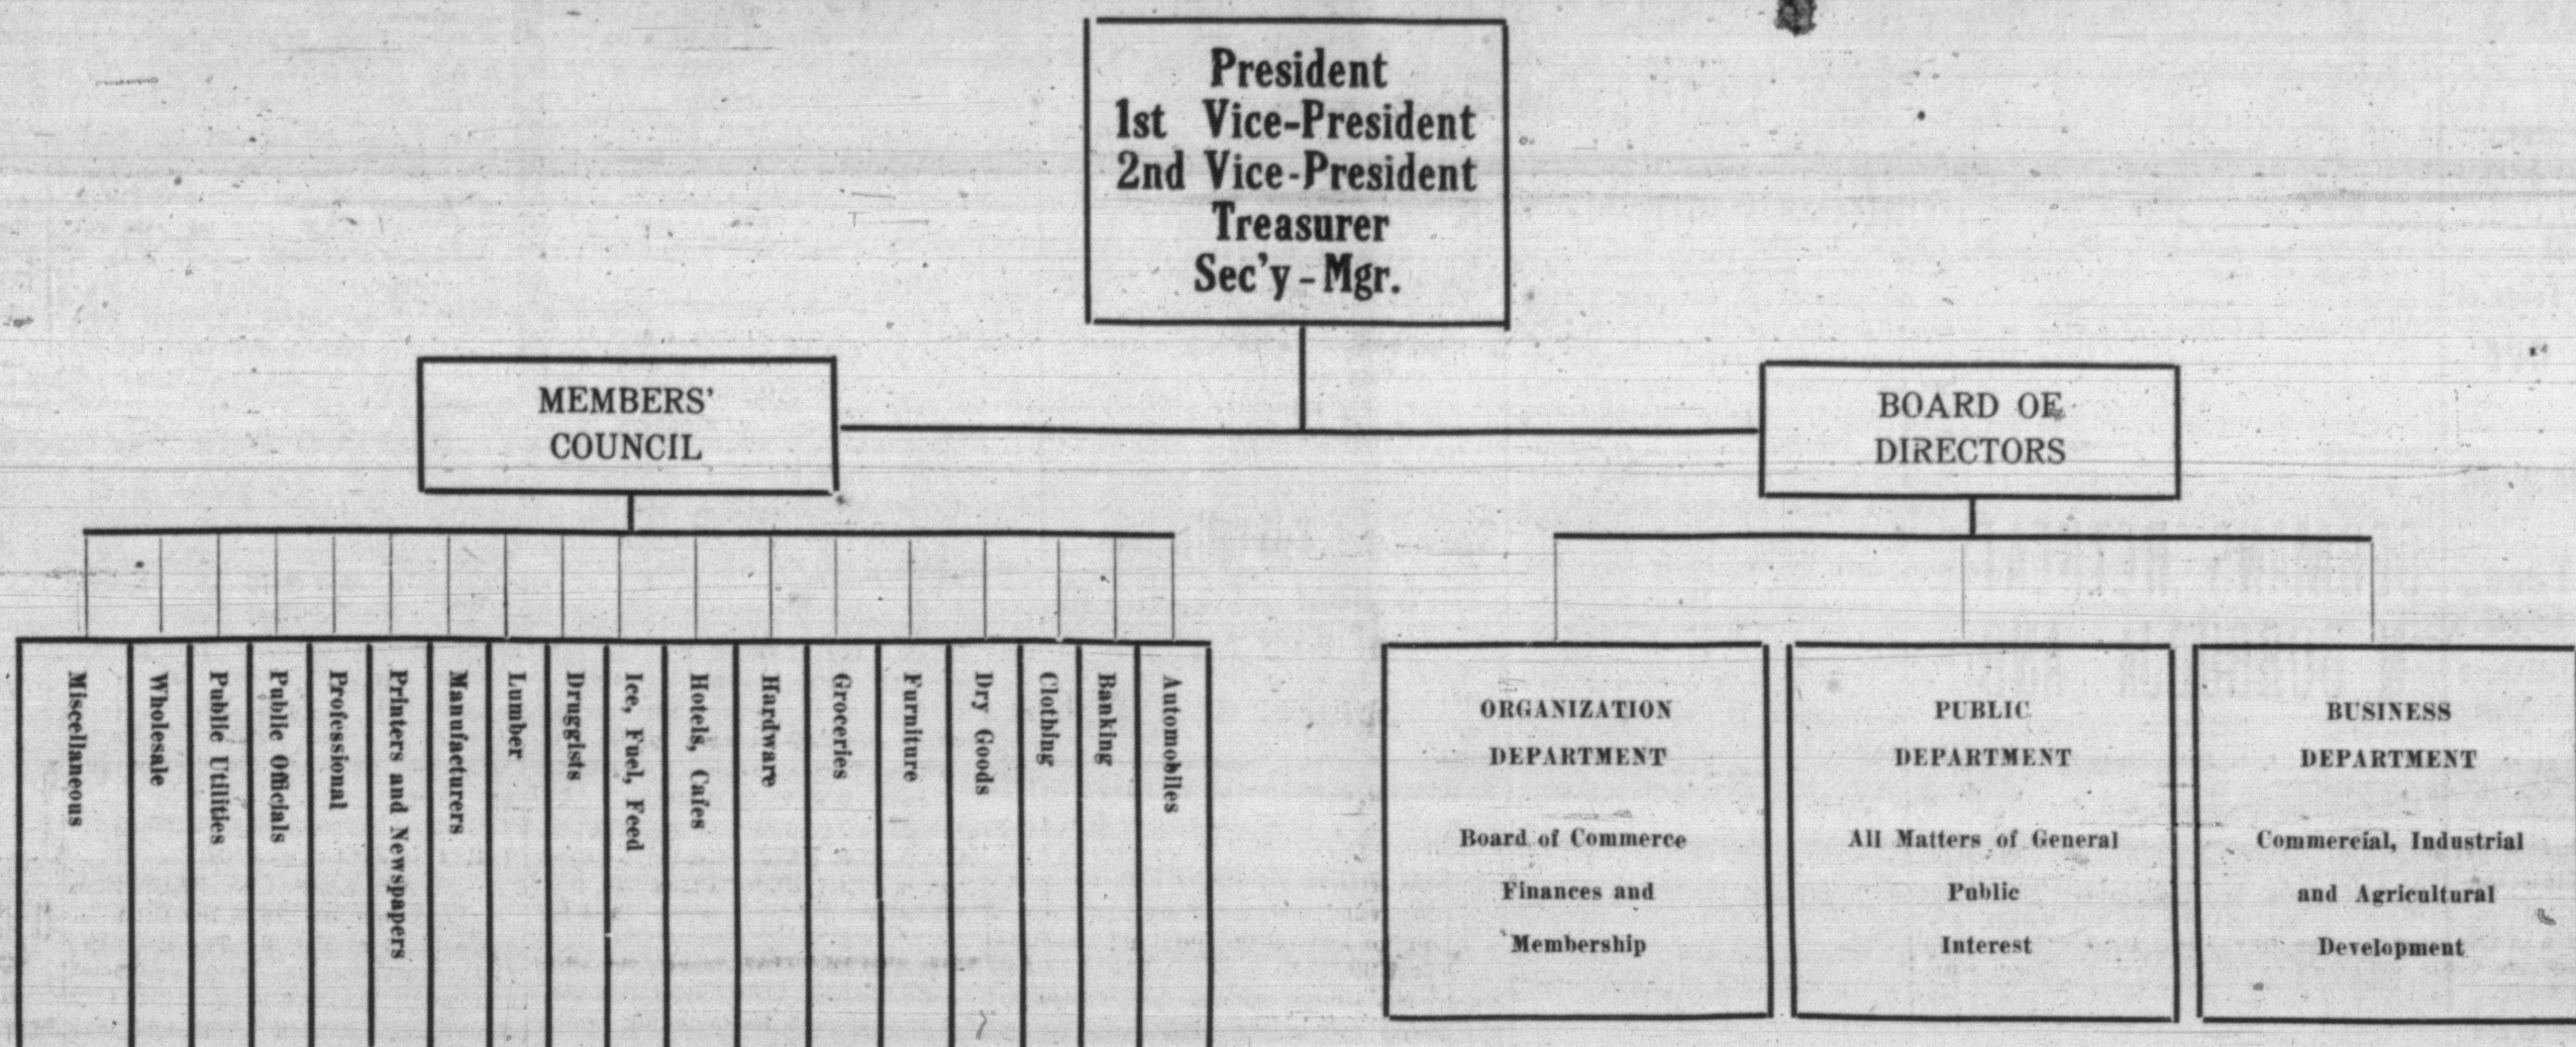

MORE FACTORIES MORE PEOPLE MORE DOLLARS BETTER ROADS BETTER FARMING TRADE EXPANSION BUY AT HOME CIVIC IMPROVEMENTS
PREPAREDNESS FOR MUSCLE SHOALS DEVELOPMENT

Next Wednesday Morning at 9:00 O'clock fifty busy business men of Albany will start out to secure support for the proposed Board of Commerce. They are your friends, and your business neighbors. They are sacrificing their time from their business to invite you to increase yours through membership in the Board of Commerce. Remember this. Be good. We have a fine citizenship, but individually we haven't enough of the spirit of citizenship. The Board of Commerce to be organized within the next few days will be the medium through which all our people can contribute to the improvement of every phase of our community life. It will also be the medium through which Albany shall communicate with the outside world.

The Board of Commerce will be placed upon an adequate and permanent financial basis, and a man experienced in Commercial Organization work will be employed as manager.

From the following you will see the general purposes of the organization, and the plan upon which it will be operated.

CHART SHOWING PLAN OF ORGANIZATION AND CONTROL

HOW IT WILL OPERATE

The Department Plan provides something to do for every member. Everyone will be asked to serve with some committee or division outlined further. These divisions will conduct the work of the organization. A director will head each one of the three departments, making a total of seven directors including the President, two Vice-Presidents and the Treasurer.

The President will have charge of all affairs of the organization. He will preside at meetings of the Board of Directors. The first Vice-President will assist the President in his work and the Second Vice-President will act as chairman of the Member's Council.

The Board of Directors will direct the activities of the organization with the advice and consent of the Member's Council.

A Managing-Secretary will be employed permanently to have charge of the organization. He will be responsible for a business-like handling of the affairs, and will be under the direction of the Board of Directors.

The Department of Organization Affairs will concern itself more with the inner workings of the Board of Commerce, providing for an increase in membership, well regulated finances, good entertainment for the organization itself and visitors to the city, publicity, etc.

The Department of Public Affairs will deal with matters of public interest, such as parks, playgrounds, streets, sewers, educational facilities, furthering of legislative matters, securing better service of public utilities, good roads, etc. Anything that serves for contentment on the part of the citizens of the community comes under the direction of this department.

The Department of Business Affairs will endeavor to create more business for Albany, by developing the commercial, industrial and agricultural interests of the community.

MEMBERS' COUNCIL

The Members' Council will plan the things that the organization will attempt to do and will control the policy.

Your line of business will be allowed representation in the Members' Council in proportion to the number of members it has in the organization.

It will consist of one representative from each line of business or trade for every five members or fraction of five, that calling has in the organization. Each line of business—immediately following the membership campaign—will hold meetings at the Board of Commerce and elect its representatives to this council. At these group meetings discussions will be had of the things that should be done by the organization and the Councilmen elected will endeavor to further the best interests of the group he represents. The men elected will meet in Council meetings every week to discuss the business of the organization and plan the events and activities.

A REFERENDUM will be sent to each member asking him to inform the office of the two things he believes most important to be taken up by the organization.

A PROGRAM-OF WORK will be adopted embodying the ten or twelve most important things the members desire done for the first year. This program of work or schedule of activities will be much like a political platform. When it is decided what is most needed, election of officers, and directors will take place. The work is being so systematically outlined that officers and councilmen will be responsible as well as the committees to which work is assigned.

This plan is tentative and will be passed upon and changed according to the wishes of the members at the first membership meeting after the campaign closes.

What You Get Out of It

Only a few years ago the theory of organization work for city building was based upon selfishness, to the extent that each individual citizen had to be shown what he could get out of it.

A little later the preaching was that each would get out of the organization what he put in it.

Today the thought is that each participant in an organization to promote the interests of the town, will get out of it not only what he puts into it, but what all the other supporters put into it. If Albany is not good enough for us to boost, it is not good enough for us to live in.

If you want to know how much real religion a man has, watch his attitude toward his neighbors seven days in the week.

The bee by itself has no intelligence, but honey is made by the spirit of the hive—which is loyalty and co-operation.

The effort to secure a sufficient fund to promote the interests of Albany through a Board of Commerce, will give every citizen an opportunity to show that he believes in the spirit of the hive.

Mayor's Proclamation

To the Citizens of Albany:—

As Mayor of Albany, interested in all that conduces to the public welfare, I call upon the public-spirited citizens of this community to attend the mass meeting to be held under the auspices of the Albany Board of Commerce, in the city hall, Monday, Nov. 6, at 8 p. m. The purpose of this meeting is to bring about closer co-operation among our people, and to discuss ways and means of making Albany grow. I am reliably informed that the Board of Commerce is a broad movement that that it is to be democratic in its organization and will afford every patriotic citizen an opportunity to do something for his city.

This occasion should be a hopeful inaugural of a new era of progress and activity, and the forerunner of bigger things to come.

E. C. PAYNE.

EVERETT IS QUIET AFTER BIG BATTLE

SOLDIERS HELD READY TO SEND TO SCENE, BUT PROBABLY NOT NEEDED.

(International News Service.)
Everett, Nov. 6.—The death list of Sunday's I. W. W. riot may stand at 19 or more when the final count is completed. Another deputy sheriff, Jeff Beard, died today from his wounds. Witnesses of the battle stated that at least 12 men were drowned when they jumped overboard from the steamer Verona after being shot during the battle.

Of the 40 wounded, five will probably die. Both I. W. W.'s and Everett citizens are preparing today to charge each other with murder.

(International News Service.)
Seattle, Wash., Nov. 6.—Everett is reported quiet today following yesterday's battle between 250 Industrial Workers of the World and a posse of deputies and citizens in which at least five were killed and 40 wounded.
Meanwhile companies of the national guard and naval militia are held under arms here pending orders to go to Everett to police the city if necessary.

Word from Adj. Gen. Thompson, who is investigating at Everett, is that they probably will not be needed.

The industrial workers returning here on the steamer Verona bringing four dead and a number of wounded are under arrest. They declare they were unarmed and fired none of the hundreds of shots which followed their attempt to land in Everett with the avowed intention of taking part in labor troubles there. They also say that several of their number fell overboard during the battle and were drowned.

COUNCIL OF WAR ON ROUMANIA TO BE HELD.

(International News Service.)
Zurich, Nov. 6.—A council of war dealing with the Roumanian situation is shortly to be held at Belgrade. A dispatch from a German source today says that Field Marshal Von Hindenburg is going to Belgrade to meet Gen.
Falkenhayn and Field Marshal Von Mackensen.

SEVERE DEFEAT OF FRENCH IS CLAIMED.

(International News Service.)
Berlin, Nov. 6.—A severe defeat of the Franco-British forces on the Somme front was announced by the war office today. The allied attack was launched on a front of 12½ miles.
The attackers suffered the heaviest sanguinary losses and accomplished nothing but a local gain in the northern part of the St. Pierre-St. Vaast wood. Ten officers and 380 men were captured.

U. S. Will be "Miser Nation" of World

(International News Service.)
Washington, Nov. 6.—Officials of the federal reserve system and other men having dominant power in the Ameri-make the United States the "miser nation." They have paid plans for this government to hoard every dollar of gold now in this country. This they say is the only way to withstand efforts of European nations to withdraw gold from the United States after the war is ended.

In the next few weeks officials of the federal reserve system will hold three conferences in Washington of world-wide importance. The federal reserve advisory council consisting of representatives from each of the 12 reserve banks will meet here Nov. 20.

The Albany public schools have recently received a box of "beaver cuttings" from Mr. T. C. Talmage, of Cleveland, Ohio, who owns a camp at Seventh lake in the Adirondacks. A colony of these interesting animals have felled good-sized trees and built a dam and plastered their home over an inlet to the lake. They are truly the "master builders" among animals. They work on vigorously without alarm. I asked if they had ever been domesticated, and he said a few had become pets—taken when very young and tenderly cared for until they knew no other friends. The kodak views of Mr. Talmage's camp represent a wide spread bungalow in a setting of trees in sight of the beautiful Seventh lake. A wood shed with open sides disclosed cords of wood for the open fire places, proving that cool mornings were the rule, and fires needed sometimes even in sunshining days. One July morning Mrs. Talmage found that every blossom had been eaten from her beautiful pansy bed. They soon discovered that a wild deer with aesthetic taste had nibbled and swallowed every one. After that they used to come so near they could look into each other's eyes, and then scamper away. Deer, as we know, sometimes become troublesome and dangerous pets. Squirrels soon become so tame they perch on the shoulders of their benefactors, and eat sweet corn, of which they are fond, and hunt in pockets for more. We all know how fond they are of nuts, and in many of our parks are so tame they become very familiar and look for people to hand out food for them.

There are so many interesting accomplishments known to belong to the beaver family. Wish I had time and space to write up, but have not.
MRS. T. C. ALLISON.

DOMESTIC SCIENCE.

Oatmeal Mush.

One cup oatmeal, four and one-half cups boiling water, one and one-half teaspoonful salt.
Method—Put the boiling water in the upper part of the double boiler and gradually the oatmeal and salt. Cook over the fire without the lower part for five or ten minutes, then set in the lower part and steam for five or six hours. Stir it once in a while. Oatmeal is best cooked one day and served the next morning, to insure its having been well cooked.

Note—Berries, sliced peaches, bananas, apple sauce and dates or figs cut in pieces are additions to cereals.

Potato Doughnuts.

One cup mashed potatoes, one and one-half cup of sugar, two teaspoonful melted butter, three teaspoonful baking powders, one-half teaspoonful salt, two cups of sweet milk, two eggs, three cups flour nutmeg grating, one-half teaspoonful cinnamon.

Method—Heat the eggs and add the sugar. Mash the potatoes and put them through a strainer, add the butter and the milk and put through the strainer again. Add eggs and sugar and then the flour to which has been added the baking powders and a pinch of salt. Roll out to one-fourth inch thick, cut and fry as other doughnuts. Makes three dozen.

ATHLETICS.

The high school eleven has lost only one game out of three played this year. The next game will be here with Huntsville on the tenth. The next with the Goodrich preps in Huntsville the seventh; then Greene in Athens on the twenty-fourth. We will probably play Hartselle and Florence. At the last two games the people as well as the high school pupils turned out and rooted for the home team, which helped greatly towards winning. We made expenses on both games, but have a debt of about $70.

JOKES.

Mr. Carter—"You will have to bring an excuse for your absence."
Clarence Anderson—"Who from?"
Mr. Carter—"Your father."
Clarence—"He's no good at making excuses; ma catches him every time."

Mrs. Reynolds—"Is there any chance to rise to a high plane working as a clerk in a dry goods store?"
Henry Murphree—"I should say so. My brother, Bert, who graduated, started on the first floor and now he's on the second."

Pat—"Do you believe in dreams?"
Mike—"Sure! Last night I dreamed that I was awake and when I woke up my dream came true."

Pat—"I dreamed I was awake, and faith, when I woke up I was asleep."
Mike—"Pat, you're drunk."

Pat—"Faith, and I'm not, and if I was sober you wouldn't say that."

Mike—"Begory, if you was sober you would have sense enough to know that you was drunk."

Kenneth Harris and "Doc" Chenault were hunting on forbidden ground, but Doc had a permit and when the warden came, as Doc began running as hard as he could and the warden chased him. When he came up with him he asked: "Have you a permit to hunt on these grounds?"

Doc—"Yes, sir."

Warden—"Then why did you run?"

Doc—"To let Kenneth get away; he did not have a permit."

"Who is the smartest boy in your class?" asked Adlia's father.
"I would like to tell you but I do not like to boast," answered Adlia.

Mr. Carter seeing a piece of egg on the mouth of Cleotis Robenstein he thought a hint would do, so he said: "Cleotis, how did you have your egg cooked this morning?"
"I did not have them this morning I had them yesterday," answered Cleotis.

Washington, Nov. 6.—Twenty-five members of the United States senate whose terms of office soon run out are asking re-election at the polls tomorrow. In accordance with the constitutional amendment proclaimed on May 31, 1915, all senators are now elected by popular vote. The senators seeking another term are:

Democrats—Ashurst, of Arizona; Chilton, West Virginia; Culberson, Texas; Hitchcock, Nebraska; Johnson, Maine; Kern, Indiana; Martine, New Jersey; Myers, Montana; Pittman, Nevada; Pomerene, Ohio; Reed, Missouri; Swanson, Virginia; Taggart, Indiana, and Williams of Mississippi.
Republicans—Clark, of Wyoming; DuPont, Delaware; LaFollette, Wisconsin; Lippitt, Rhode Island; Lodge, Massachusetts; McCumber, North Dakota; McLean, Connecticut; Page, Vermont; Poindexter, Washington; Sutherland, Utah, and Townsend of Michigan.

BIG WOMAN VOTE IS UNCERTAIN FACTOR.

(International News Service.)

Washington, Nov. 6.—About three and two-thirds million women will have the right to vote for president tomorrow, a far larger number than ever voted before on any question in any country of the world. The big woman vote is one of the most puzzling elements in the campaign for the prophets.

The states in which women can vote for president and the number of women in each state over 21 years of age, according to the last census, that of 1910, are as follows:

Illinois	1,567,481
California	671,286
Kansas	438,934
Colorado	213,425
Washington	277,727
Oregon	168,323
Arizona	43,891
Montana	81,741
Idaho	69,818
Utah	85,729
Wyoming	28,840
Nevada	18,140
Total	3,665,445

THREE STATES TO VOTE ON WOMAN SUFFRAGE.

(International News Service.)

Washington, Nov. 6.—Three states—South Dakota, West Virginia and Iowa—will vote on the question of extending the suffrage to women tomorrow. South Dakota has had school suffrage for women since 1887. Suffrage leaders predict victory in all three "campaign states."

PROHIBITION BEFORE SIX STATES ON TOMORROW.

(International News Service.)

Washington, Nov. 6.—Six states—California, Missouri, Montana, Utah, Nebraska and South Dakota—will vote on proposals to abolish the manufacture and sale of alcoholic liquor tomorrow. Of these, prohibition leaders say, Montana, Utah, Nebraska and South Dakota are believed certain to go dry.

In the dry states of Washington, Oregon and Arizona, the prohibitionists will try tomorrow to strengthen the laws against the rum demon. In some of the dry states the wets will attempt to put through proposals tomorrow by which prohibitory statutes would be weakened or destroyed.

BROADWAY TO BE QUIET THIS ELECTION NIGHT

(International News Service.)

New York, Nov. 6.—The unusual spectacle of a fairly quiet Broadway on election night will be seen here Tuesday night. Most of the downtown sections of the famous thoroughfare will be barred to revellers. The sidewalks and roadway are proposed up on temporary supports owing to new subway construction, and the public service engineers feared the weight of hundreds of thousands of merry makers might break them down and cause a serious accident.

WILCOX CLAIMS 315 VOTES FOR MR. HUGHES

(International News Service.)

New York, Nov. 6.—Chairman Wilcox issued a statement today claiming from 310 to 315 electoral votes for Hughes. "The situation looks very very fine," said Wilcox. "We are all as content as we can be. I have received a telegram from Illinois which leads to the most confident belief that Illinois will go republican by about 200,000 votes."

ODDS FAVOR HUGHES.

(International News Service.)

Chicago, Nov. 6.—Betting on the presidential race here today favored Hughes 10 to 7. Wilson supporters are taking all the money that actually is placed.

Don't Guess—

You might not always be right and even though you were, you might not be able to prove it.

Memory plays strange tricks and in the case of cash transactions, without a record, the memory of two persons does not always agree.

Pay your bills by check and avail yourself of the opportunity such a record will give you as a protection and a convenience.
